

THE VIRGINIA DIVISION

Organized Eleven Years Ago
With a Hand-Full.

NOW A GIANT OF STRENGTH

A Splendid Organization of Eight Hundred Members Whose Influence is Felt in All Public Affairs in the State.

April 2, 1892, several of the old members of the T. P. A. of A. and their friends assembled at Murphy's Hotel for the purpose of organizing a Division of the Association in this State. In view of the fact that the annual convention of the Association was to be held at Old Point Comfort, Va., in June of that year, it was important that the organization be effected prior to that time. Several meetings were held, and the formal organization effected as follows: R. S. Christian, president; George Gibson, Jr., secretary and treasurer; Board of Directors: C. W. Saunders, John B. Culpeper, S. C. Shild, C. V. Clash, R. E. Craig, W. B. West; Railroad Committee: Joseph Wallerstein, chairman; Hotel Committee, C. W. Saunders, chairman; Press Committee: J. B. Culpeper, chairman.

PRIDE OF RICHMOND
On January 12, 1893, a notable band of the "Knights of the Grip" organized Post A in rooms Nos. 30 and 32, Richmond Chamber of Commerce, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. P. Le Brou, president; William J. Crump, vice-president; B. H. Marsh, secretary and treasurer; Board of Directors, William Reinheimer, chairman; R. S. Crump, B. T. Crump, D. B. Wallerstein, M. I. Binswanger, J. W. Wiltshire and A. V. Shea; Railroad Committee, John C. Hagan; Legislative Committee, Charles E. Wingo, chairman; Hotel Committee, P. P. Murray, chairman; Employment Committee, R. R. Roberts, chairman; Press Committee, John B. Culpeper, chairman.

After one year's service, Mr. C. W. Saunders was elected to succeed Mr. J. P. Le Brou, and held the position until April, 1897, he then positively declining re-election. R. W. Spilman was unanimously elected president December 21, 1897; R. B. Walthall was elected secretary and treasurer, which position he held until June 1st, 1899.

Much credit is due to the above officers for the untiring zeal in promoting the interest of the Post in the first years of its existence. Post A has always been deeply interested in the commercial development of this city and State, and its members have been ever exceedingly active in all measures for the betterment of such interests throughout the country and in the National Conventions, as well as their State Conventions. A large number of delegates from Post A attended the Commercial "Travelers' Congress" at Atlanta, Ga., November 13, 1896, and in all of these gatherings they were instrumental in shaping the policy and aims of the great National Association, several of its members having been chosen National Officers.

At a meeting of Post A, held April 17th, 1897, offered a resolution that a committee be appointed to consider the advisability of securing new headquarters, which was adopted and the following committee was appointed: John C. Hagan, H. E. Ellis, Jr., and John S. Harwood, who recommended that the handsome building, corner Third and Main Streets, be secured as a desirable home; this recommendation of the committee was approved, and at their request a new committee was appointed to look after the improvements to be made on the building, consisting of R. W. Spilman, chairman, Julian Binford, John A. Traylor, Joseph Wallerstein and C. W. Saunders. Too much praise cannot be given these committees for the very efficient manner in which they discharged their duties. A House Furnishing Committee was appointed, composed of the following: J. H. Warden, Julian Binford and D. S. Harwood, and as the result of these three committees' hard work we have our beautiful headquarters at Third and Main Streets, a place of "Glad Welcome" for its members and the traveling men, as well as their employers, all over this broad land, and has already become a factor in strengthening and intensifying the fraternal feeling existing between them.

BRIEF HISTORY.
Post A was granted a charter on August 13, 1897, under the name of "Post A, Virginia Division of the Travelers' Protective Association of America." The officers for the first year: W. Spilman, president; John C. Hagan, vice-president; R. B. Walthall, secretary and treasurer, and the following Board of Directors: S. Doughty, chairman, H. E. Ellis, Jr., J. W. Rowley, Thomas Poindester, M. I. Binswanger, John A. Traylor and J. H. Capen, Jr.

With such a band of earnest workers there is no wonder that our Post and the Association at large has materially advanced in membership and usefulness, and it is safe to predict an increase in membership for the year 1904 of fifty per cent.

PRESIDENTS.
Among the many who have been prominent and labored faithfully for the success of this State organization, Mr. C. W. Saunders will stand first, in that he was one of its charter members, and has, since its first conception, continuously served the Division in various ways as director and committeeman, and, since 1897, as State president, always alert to its welfare and jealously guarding its good name. Few men would have made the many sacrifices he has, both of his time and money, for the good of any organization. Mr. R. S. Christian for several years served as president, and was succeeded by W. P. Redd, of Danville, Va. Mr. Redd, in turn, was succeeded by J. H. Warden, who was called to a foreign country, and the duties of the office devolved upon the vice-president, Major J. W. Rawley, who was ever faithful to the work committed to his charge. At the State Convention of 1897, the end of the term, the present incumbent, Mr. C. W. Saunders, was overwhelmingly elected, and it is needless to say more than has been said regarding this worthy officer. His works are the monuments of a bustling record.

GOOD MEN AND TRUE.
Mr. George Gibson, Jr., the secretary and treasurer, who for six years acted in that capacity, was the wheel-horse of the whole Division; everybody looked to George when anything connected with the T. P. A. was to be learned. He was the very breath of life when he expanded the membership grew, and it is not saying too much when the fact is stated that after six years of close attention to the duties of his office, he retired with the satisfaction of having seen the membership increase four hundred per cent.

Mr. Joseph Wallerstein is also an important factor in the history of Virginia Division, being a charter member of the National T. P. A. Association, and served its members most satisfactorily. He has always been on hand and ready to expound the law and make known the great benefits derived through this Association.

Time would fail to speak of the valuable services rendered by Thomas Poindester, H. Leo Lorraine, Colonel J. B. Harwood, Harry Ellis, Jr., John B. Culpeper, John C. Hagan, John A. Traylor, B. H. Marsh, R. W. Spilman, C. W. Harwood, W. T. Moulton, Paul Heindel, S. Doughty, D. S. Harwood and J. H. Warden; Colonel J. V. Biddgood, secretary and treasurer for 1899; R. B. Walthall, secretary and treasurer 1897-1899; and Horace P. Smith, who is the man who conceived this "T. P. A. Edition" and who has had the entire management of the many-sided work connected therewith.

EIGHT POSTS.
There are now eight flourishing Posts

in Virginia Division—A, Richmond; B, Norfolk; C, Petersburg; D, South Boston; E, Danville; F, Alexandria; G, Lynchburg; H, Blackstone.

THE DIVISION OFFICERS.

The present officers of the Virginia Division, elected at Danville, Va., April 25, 1903, are:

President—T. S. Beckwith, of Petersburg.

First vice-president—A. D. Brockett, of Alexandria.

Second vice-president—J. S. Oliver, of Danville.

Third vice-president—C. W. Harris, of Richmond.

Fourth vice-president—G. A. Dluguid, of Lynchburg.

Fifth vice-president—Homer Atkinson, of Petersburg.

Sixth vice-president—R. E. Williams, of Norfolk.

Seventh vice-president—J. D. Norwood, of South Boston.

Eighth vice-president—B. W. Sanford, of Blackstone.

Secretary and treasurer—H. L. Harwood.

Chairman of Legislative Committee—R. W. Spilman, Richmond.

Chairman of Press Committee—R. B. Walthall, Richmond.

Chairman of Hotel Committee—Paul Roper, of Petersburg.

Chairman of Employment Committee—E. P. Daniel, Jr., Richmond.

Chairman of Membership Committee—A. D. Keen, Danville.

Chaplain—Rev. J. J. Gravatt.

POST A, VA. DIV.

PRIDE OF RICHMOND

On January 12, 1893, a notable band of the "Knights of the Grip" organized Post A in rooms Nos. 30 and 32, Richmond Chamber of Commerce, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. P. Le Brou, president; William J. Crump, vice-president; B. H. Marsh, secretary and treasurer; Board of Directors, William Reinheimer, chairman; R. S. Crump, B. T. Crump, D. B. Wallerstein, M. I. Binswanger, J. W. Wiltshire and A. V. Shea; Railroad Committee, John C. Hagan; Legislative Committee, Charles E. Wingo, chairman; Hotel Committee, P. P. Murray, chairman; Employment Committee, R. R. Roberts, chairman; Press Committee, John B. Culpeper, chairman.

After one year's service, Mr. C. W. Saunders was elected to succeed Mr. J. P. Le Brou, and held the position until April, 1897, he then positively declining re-election. R. W. Spilman was unanimously elected president December 21, 1897; R. B. Walthall was elected secretary and treasurer, which position he held until June 1st, 1899.

Much credit is due to the above officers for the untiring zeal in promoting the interest of the Post in the first years of its existence. Post A has always been deeply interested in the commercial development of this city and State, and its members have been ever exceedingly active in all measures for the betterment of such interests throughout the country and in the National Conventions, as well as their State Conventions. A large number of delegates from Post A attended the Commercial "Travelers' Congress" at Atlanta, Ga., November 13, 1896, and in all of these gatherings they were instrumental in shaping the policy and aims of the great National Association, several of its members having been chosen National Officers.

At a meeting of Post A, held April 17th, 1897, offered a resolution that a committee be appointed to consider the advisability of securing new headquarters, which was adopted and the following committee was appointed: John C. Hagan, H. E. Ellis, Jr., and John S. Harwood, who recommended that the handsome building, corner Third and Main Streets, be secured as a desirable home; this recommendation of the committee was approved, and at their request a new committee was appointed to look after the improvements to be made on the building, consisting of R. W. Spilman, chairman, Julian Binford, John A. Traylor, Joseph Wallerstein and C. W. Saunders. Too much praise cannot be given these committees for the very efficient manner in which they discharged their duties. A House Furnishing Committee was appointed, composed of the following: J. H. Warden, Julian Binford and D. S. Harwood, and as the result of these three committees' hard work we have our beautiful headquarters at Third and Main Streets, a place of "Glad Welcome" for its members and the traveling men, as well as their employers, all over this broad land, and has already become a factor in strengthening and intensifying the fraternal feeling existing between them.

BRIEF HISTORY.
Post A was granted a charter on August 13, 1897, under the name of "Post A, Virginia Division of the Travelers' Protective Association of America."

The officers for the first year: W. Spilman, president; John C. Hagan, vice-president; R. B. Walthall, secretary and treasurer, and the following Board of Directors: S. Doughty, chairman, H. E. Ellis, Jr., J. W. Rowley, Thomas Poindester, M. I. Binswanger, John A. Traylor and J. H. Capen, Jr.

With such a band of earnest workers there is no wonder that our Post and the Association at large has materially advanced in membership and usefulness, and it is safe to predict an increase in membership for the year 1904 of fifty per cent.

PRESIDENTS.
Among the many who have been prominent and labored faithfully for the success of this State organization, Mr. C. W. Saunders will stand first, in that he was one of its charter members, and has, since its first conception, continuously served the Division in various ways as director and committeeman, and, since 1897, as State president, always alert to its welfare and jealously guarding its good name. Few men would have made the many sacrifices he has, both of his time and money, for the good of any organization. Mr. R. S. Christian for several years served as president, and was succeeded by W. P. Redd, of Danville, Va. Mr. Redd, in turn, was succeeded by J. H. Warden, who was called to a foreign country, and the duties of the office devolved upon the vice-president, Major J. W. Rawley, who was ever faithful to the work committed to his charge. At the State Convention of 1897, the end of the term, the present incumbent, Mr. C. W. Saunders, was overwhelmingly elected, and it is needless to say more than has been said regarding this worthy officer. His works are the monuments of a bustling record.

GOOD MEN AND TRUE.
Mr. George Gibson, Jr., the secretary and treasurer, who for six years acted in that capacity, was the wheel-horse of the whole Division; everybody looked to George when anything connected with the T. P. A. was to be learned. He was the very breath of life when he expanded the membership grew, and it is not saying too much when the fact is stated that after six years of close attention to the duties of his office, he retired with the satisfaction of having seen the membership increase four hundred per cent.

Mr. Joseph Wallerstein is also an important factor in the history of Virginia Division, being a charter member of the National T. P. A. Association, and served its members most satisfactorily. He has always been on hand and ready to expound the law and make known the great benefits derived through this Association. Time would fail to speak of the valuable services rendered by Thomas Poindester, H. Leo Lorraine, Colonel J. B. Harwood, Harry Ellis, Jr., John B. Culpeper, John C. Hagan, John A. Traylor, B. H. Marsh, R. W. Spilman, C. W. Harwood, W. T. Moulton, Paul Heindel, S. Doughty, D. S. Harwood and J. H. Warden; Colonel J. V. Biddgood, secretary and treasurer for 1899; R. B. Walthall, secretary and treasurer 1897-1899; and Horace P. Smith, who is the man who conceived this "T. P. A. Edition" and who has had the entire management of the many-sided work connected therewith.

EIGHT POSTS.
There are now eight flourishing Posts

in Virginia Division—A, Richmond; B, Norfolk; C, Petersburg; D, South Boston; E, Danville; F, Alexandria; G, Lynchburg; H, Blackstone.

THE DIVISION OFFICERS.

The present officers of the Virginia Division, elected at Danville, Va., April 25, 1903, are:

President—T. S. Beckwith, of Petersburg.

First vice-president—A. D. Brockett, of Alexandria.

Second vice-president—J. S. Oliver, of Danville.

Third vice-president—C. W. Harris, of Richmond.

Fourth vice-president—G. A. Dluguid, of Lynchburg.

Fifth vice-president—Homer Atkinson, of Petersburg.

Sixth vice-president—R. E. Williams, of Norfolk.

Seventh vice-president—J. D. Norwood, of South Boston.

Eighth vice-president—B. W. Sanford, of Blackstone.

Secretary and treasurer—H. L. Harwood.

Chairman of Legislative Committee—R. W. Spilman, Richmond.

Chairman of Press Committee—R. B. Walthall, Richmond.

Chairman of Hotel Committee—Paul Roper, of Petersburg.

Chairman of Employment Committee—E. P. Daniel, Jr., Richmond.

Chairman of Membership Committee—A. D. Keen, Danville.

Chaplain—Rev. J. J. Gravatt.

POST A, VA. DIV.

PRIDE OF RICHMOND

On January 12, 1893, a notable band of the "Knights of the Grip" organized Post A in rooms Nos. 30 and 32, Richmond Chamber of Commerce, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. P. Le Brou, president; William J. Crump, vice-president; B. H. Marsh, secretary and treasurer; Board of Directors, William Reinheimer, chairman; R. S. Crump, B. T. Crump, D. B. Wallerstein, M. I. Binswanger, J. W. Wiltshire and A. V. Shea; Railroad Committee, John C. Hagan; Legislative Committee, Charles E. Wingo, chairman; Hotel Committee, P. P. Murray, chairman; Employment Committee, R. R. Roberts, chairman; Press Committee, John B. Culpeper, chairman.

After one year's service, Mr. C. W. Saunders was elected to succeed Mr. J. P. Le Brou, and held the position until April, 1897, he then positively declining re-election. R. W. Spilman was unanimously elected president December 21, 1897; R. B. Walthall was elected secretary and treasurer, which position he held until June 1st, 1899.

Much credit is due to the above officers for the untiring zeal in promoting the interest of the Post in the first years of its existence. Post A has always been deeply interested in the commercial development of this city and State, and its members have been ever exceedingly active in all measures for the betterment of such interests throughout the country and in the National Conventions, as well as their State Conventions. A large number of delegates from Post A attended the Commercial "Travelers' Congress" at Atlanta, Ga., November 13, 1896, and in all of these gatherings they were instrumental in shaping the policy and aims of the great National Association, several of its members having been chosen National Officers.

At a meeting of Post A, held April 17th, 1897, offered a resolution that a committee be appointed to consider the advisability of securing new headquarters, which was adopted and the following committee was appointed: John C. Hagan, H. E. Ellis, Jr., and John S. Harwood, who recommended that the handsome building, corner Third and Main Streets, be secured as a desirable home; this recommendation of the committee was approved, and at their request a new committee was appointed to look after the improvements to be made on the building, consisting of R. W. Spilman, chairman, Julian Binford, John A. Traylor, Joseph Wallerstein and C. W. Saunders. Too much praise cannot be given these committees for the very efficient manner in which they discharged their duties. A House Furnishing Committee was appointed, composed of the following: J. H. Warden, Julian Binford and D. S. Harwood, and as the result of these three committees' hard work we have our beautiful headquarters at Third and Main Streets, a place of "Glad Welcome" for its members and the traveling men, as well as their employers, all over this broad land, and has already become a factor in strengthening and intensifying the fraternal feeling existing between them.

BRIEF HISTORY.
Post A was granted a charter on August 13, 1897, under the name of "Post A, Virginia Division of the Travelers' Protective Association of America."

The officers for the first year: W. Spilman, president; John C. Hagan, vice-president; R. B. Walthall, secretary and treasurer, and the following Board of Directors: S. Doughty, chairman, H. E. Ellis, Jr., J. W. Rowley, Thomas Poindester, M. I. Binswanger, John A. Traylor and J. H. Capen, Jr.

With such a band of earnest workers there is no wonder that our Post and the Association at large has materially advanced in membership and usefulness, and it is safe to predict an increase in membership for the year 1904 of fifty per cent.

PRESIDENTS.
Among the many who have been prominent and labored faithfully for the success of this State organization, Mr. C. W. Saunders will stand first, in that he was one of its charter members, and has, since its first conception, continuously served the Division in various ways as director and committeeman, and, since 1897, as State president, always alert to its welfare and jealously guarding its good name. Few men would have made the many sacrifices he has, both of his time and money, for the good of any organization. Mr. R. S. Christian for several years served as president, and was succeeded by W. P. Redd, of Danville, Va. Mr. Redd, in turn, was succeeded by J. H. Warden, who was called to a foreign country, and the duties of the office devolved upon the vice-president, Major J. W. Rawley, who was ever faithful to the work committed to his charge. At the State Convention of 1897, the end of the term, the present incumbent, Mr. C. W. Saunders, was overwhelmingly elected, and it is needless to say more than has been said regarding this worthy officer. His works are the monuments of a bustling record.

GOOD MEN AND TRUE.
Mr. George Gibson, Jr., the secretary and treasurer, who for six years acted in that capacity, was the wheel-horse of the whole Division; everybody looked to George when anything connected with the T. P. A. was to be learned. He was the very breath of life when he expanded the membership grew, and it is not saying too much when the fact is stated that after six years of close attention to the duties of his office, he retired with the satisfaction of having seen the membership increase four hundred per cent.

Mr. Joseph Wallerstein is also an important factor in the history of Virginia Division, being a charter member of the National T. P. A. Association, and served its members most satisfactorily. He has always been on hand and ready to expound the law and make known the great benefits derived through this Association.

Time would fail to speak of the valuable services rendered by Thomas Poindester, H. Leo Lorraine, Colonel J. B. Harwood, Harry Ellis, Jr., John B. Culpeper, John C. Hagan, John A. Traylor, B. H. Marsh, R. W. Spilman, C. W. Harwood, W. T. Moulton, Paul Heindel, S. Doughty, D. S. Harwood and J. H. Warden; Colonel J. V. Biddgood, secretary and treasurer for 1899; R. B. Walthall, secretary and treasurer 1897-1899; and Horace P. Smith, who is the man who conceived this "T. P. A. Edition" and who has had the entire management of the many-sided work connected therewith.

EIGHT POSTS.
There are now eight flourishing Posts

in Virginia Division—A, Richmond; B, Norfolk; C, Petersburg; D, South Boston; E, Danville; F, Alexandria; G, Lynchburg; H, Blackstone.

THE DIVISION OFFICERS.

The present officers of the Virginia Division, elected at Danville, Va., April 25, 1903, are:

President—T. S. Beckwith, of Petersburg.

First vice-president—A. D. Brockett, of Alexandria.

Second vice-president—J. S. Oliver, of Danville.

Third vice-president—C. W. Harris, of Richmond.

Fourth vice-president—G. A. Dluguid, of Lynchburg.

Fifth vice-president—Homer Atkinson, of Petersburg.

Sixth vice-president—R. E. Williams, of Norfolk.

Seventh vice-president—J. D. Norwood, of South Boston.

Eighth vice-president—B. W. Sanford, of Blackstone.

Secretary and treasurer—H. L. Harwood.

Chairman of Legislative Committee—R. W. Spilman, Richmond.

Chairman of Press Committee—R. B. Walthall, Richmond.

Chairman of Hotel Committee—Paul Roper, of Petersburg.

Chairman of Employment Committee—E. P. Daniel, Jr., Richmond.

Chairman of Membership Committee—A. D. Keen, Danville.

Chaplain—Rev. J. J. Gravatt.

POST A, VA. DIV.

PRIDE OF RICHMOND

On January 12, 1893, a notable band of the "Knights of the Grip" organized Post A in rooms Nos. 30 and 32, Richmond Chamber of Commerce, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. P. Le Brou, president; William J. Crump, vice-president; B. H. Marsh, secretary and treasurer; Board of Directors, William Reinheimer, chairman; R. S. Crump, B. T. Crump, D. B. Wallerstein, M. I. Binswanger, J. W. Wiltshire and A. V. Shea; Railroad Committee, John C. Hagan; Legislative Committee, Charles E. Wingo, chairman; Hotel Committee, P. P. Murray, chairman; Employment Committee, R. R. Roberts, chairman; Press Committee, John B. Culpeper, chairman.

After one year's service, Mr. C. W. Saunders was elected to succeed Mr. J. P. Le Brou, and held the position until April, 1897, he then positively declining re-election. R. W. Spilman was unanimously elected president December 21, 1897; R. B. Walthall was elected secretary and treasurer, which position he held until June 1st, 1899.

Much credit is due to the above officers for the untiring zeal in promoting the interest of the Post in the first years of its existence. Post A has always been deeply interested in the commercial development of this city and State, and its members have been ever exceedingly active in all measures for the betterment of such interests throughout the country and in the National Conventions, as well as their State Conventions. A large number of delegates from Post A attended the Commercial "Travelers' Congress" at Atlanta, Ga., November 13, 1896, and in all of these gatherings they were instrumental in shaping the policy and aims of the great National Association, several of its members having been chosen National Officers.

At a meeting of Post A, held April 17th, 1897, offered a resolution that a committee be appointed to consider the advisability of securing new headquarters, which was adopted and the following committee was appointed: John C. Hagan, H. E. Ellis, Jr., and John S. Harwood, who recommended that the handsome building, corner Third and Main Streets, be secured as a desirable home; this recommendation of the committee was approved, and at their request a new committee was appointed to look after the improvements to be made on the building, consisting of R. W. Spilman, chairman, Julian Binford, John A. Traylor, Joseph Wallerstein and C. W. Saunders. Too much praise cannot be given these committees for the very efficient manner in which they discharged their duties. A House Furnishing Committee was appointed, composed of the following: J. H. Warden, Julian Binford and D. S. Harwood, and as the result of these three committees' hard work we have our beautiful headquarters at Third and Main Streets, a place of "Glad Welcome" for its members and the traveling men, as well as their employers, all over this broad land, and has already become a factor in strengthening and intensifying the fraternal feeling existing between them.

BRIEF HISTORY.
Post A was granted a charter on August 13, 1897, under the name of "Post A, Virginia Division of the Travelers' Protective Association of America."

The officers for the first year: W. Spilman, president; John C. Hagan, vice-president; R. B. Walthall, secretary and treasurer, and the following Board of Directors: S. Doughty, chairman, H. E. Ellis, Jr., J. W. Rowley, Thomas Poindester, M. I. Binswanger, John A. Traylor and J. H. Capen, Jr.

With such a band of earnest workers there is no wonder that our Post and the Association at large has materially advanced in membership and usefulness, and it is safe to predict an increase in membership for the year 1904 of fifty per cent.

PRESIDENTS.
Among the many who have been prominent and labored faithfully for the success of this State organization, Mr. C. W. Saunders will stand first, in that he was one of its charter members, and has, since its first conception, continuously served the Division in various ways as director and committeeman, and, since 1897, as State president, always alert to its welfare and jealously guarding its good name. Few men would have made the many sacrifices he has, both of his time and money, for the good of any organization. Mr. R. S. Christian for several years served as president, and was succeeded by W. P. Redd, of Danville, Va. Mr. Redd, in turn, was succeeded by J. H. Warden, who was called to a foreign country, and the duties of the office devolved upon the vice-president, Major J. W. Rawley, who was ever faithful to the work committed to his charge. At the State Convention of 1897, the end of the term, the present incumbent, Mr. C. W. Saunders, was overwhelmingly elected, and it is needless to say more than has been said regarding this worthy officer. His works are the monuments of a bustling record.

GOOD MEN AND TRUE.
Mr. George Gibson, Jr., the secretary and treasurer, who for six years acted in that capacity, was the wheel-horse of the whole Division; everybody looked to George when anything connected with the T. P. A. was to be learned. He was the very breath of life when he expanded the membership grew, and it is not saying too much when the fact is stated that after six years of close attention to the duties of his office, he retired with the satisfaction of having seen the membership increase four hundred per cent.

Mr. Joseph Wallerstein is also an important factor in the history of Virginia Division, being a charter member of the National T. P. A. Association, and served its members most satisfactorily. He has always been on hand and ready to expound the law and make known the great benefits derived through this Association.

Time would fail to speak of the valuable services rendered by Thomas Poindester, H. Leo Lorraine, Colonel J. B. Harwood, Harry Ellis, Jr., John B. Culpeper, John C. Hagan, John A. Traylor, B. H. Marsh, R. W. Spilman, C. W. Harwood, W. T. Moulton, Paul Heindel, S. Doughty, D. S. Harwood and J. H. Warden; Colonel J. V. Biddgood, secretary and treasurer for 1899; R. B. Walthall, secretary and treasurer 1897-1899; and Horace P. Smith, who is the man who conceived this "T. P. A. Edition" and who has had the entire management of the many-sided work connected therewith.

EIGHT POSTS.
There are now eight flourishing Posts

in Virginia Division—A, Richmond; B, Norfolk; C, Petersburg; D, South Boston; E, Danville; F, Alexandria; G, Lynchburg; H, Blackstone.

THE DIVISION OFFICERS.

The present officers of the Virginia Division, elected at Danville, Va., April 25, 1903, are:

President—T. S. Beckwith, of Petersburg.

First vice-president—A. D. Brockett, of Alexandria.

Second vice-president—J. S. Oliver, of Danville.

Third vice-president—C. W. Harris, of Richmond.

Fourth vice-president—G. A. Dluguid, of Lynchburg.

Fifth vice-president—Homer Atkinson, of Petersburg.

Sixth vice-president—R. E. Williams, of Norfolk.

Seventh vice-president—J. D. Norwood, of South Boston.

Eighth vice-president—B. W. Sanford, of Blackstone.

Secretary and treasurer—H. L. Harwood.

Chairman of Legislative Committee—R. W. Spilman, Richmond.